satan's greatest nightmare:
Ekklesia, the executive assembly of the Messiah King Jesus

The frontal final battle between satan and the executive assembly of Christ.

Now it's all or nothing.

The mystery of how God regains lost control over the world is revealed: Through the body of Christ, the vital assemblies as God's command centers to establish God's kingdom and destroy the power of evil.

Warning: The warning is meant seriously. Spiritual warfare is real and has nothing to do with “battle romanticism.” Jesus says one should calculate the cost before going to war. As individuals, we can tread on snakes and scorpions. But we should only fight as Ekklesia against the spirits under the heavens, which demonize governments and people in positions of power.

These powers can use weaknesses in your life, tolerated or unrepented sins and addictions, to harm or destroy you. Moreover, you must be aware that people from your circle of friends and family, even spouses, children, or parents, may suddenly turn against you if they do not seriously follow Jesus or if they compromise. Satan can attack them too. You must break with all conscious sins and not presume you can fight alone, unless you are very clearly and specifically led. Pray for protection and preservation and for the revelation of truth for your people.

The plumb line symbolizes the vertically straight line of God for humanity and the earth. God’s chain of command. You have no say in it. If you are stuck in addictions and sins, you are unfit for spiritual warfare and disrupt the necessary harmony of an assembly of the Ekklesia. First, buy the 3x21 day training for a life in the spirit and the book “The Heart” by Reinhard Hirtler to cleanse your heart of impure addictions and thoughts.

The plumb line also shows Satan where he belongs: downward into the lake of fire.

Chapter 1:

The central divine revelation of the Bible, God's economy.

God created man in His image, like Him, and entrusted him with the dominion (domain, authority) over the earth, the sky, and everything living on it.

God wanted a partner equal to Him. Man was meant to eat from the tree of life — that is, to nourish himself through daily fellowship with God in his spirit, being increasingly filled with the divine nature and life.

Man was to extend God's kingship over the earth as sons and daughters of God.

Man fell. Since then, satan has illegally usurped the earth.

(satan is deliberately written in lowercase out of contempt.)

Jesus the Christ, the promised Messiah, is the Son of God from eternity and became human (incarnation). He redeemed humanity from corruption and death through His death and resurrection, purchased them with His blood, and secured atonement, justification, and forgiveness of sins. As the last Adam, Jesus brought an end to fallen humanity on the cross.

The man Jesus the Christ became the Spirit who gives life through the resurrection. (1 Cor. 15:45)

God's economy is now that everything is made new in Christ, in the Messiah, and God is distributed into all believers who are born anew and created by God. (Eph. 1:23) This is the Body of Christ, the kingdom of God, the bride of the Lamb, the house of God, the many sons of God's family, and the ultimate goal is the complete organic mingling of God with redeemed humanity — depicted as the New Jerusalem — the living city, which is also the bride of the Lamb, an organism consisting of God and the redeemed (not dead matter). The essence of an organism is that it is permeated, filled, and animated by the same life. The New Jerusalem is animated by the river of life flowing from God's throne.

Knowing God and the Messiah Jesus and maintaining a personal, close relationship with Him is eternal life. John 17:3.

Today, Jesus Christ is as the Body of Christ on earth, distributed through the Holy Spirit among millions of believers.

In summary, we can say:

God's economy (purpose, plan) for humanity on earth is this:

God became man in Jesus Christ, who died on the cross, rose again, became the Spirit who gives life, and in the new creation in Christ fills all things with Himself. From this emerges the Body of Christ, the Ekklesia (congregation), through which the kingdom of the heavens is established on earth. It is the bride of the Lamb, the house and temple of God, built from living stones, the family of the heavenly Father. This is completed in the New Jerusalem for all ages.

Before the incarnation of God's Son Jesus, God was only God. Through the conception of Jesus by the Holy Spirit and through the resurrection, God in Jesus also became man. With Jesus' resurrection, a man was brought into the Godhead. Psalm 2:7, Heb. 1:5; Acts 13:32-33, Rom. 1:4.

Through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, Christ as the life-giving compound all inclusive Spirit came into all believers, and thus God's dominion spreads through the Body of Christ on earth.

Even more briefly: God became man, this man became in resurrection the Spirit of life. This Spirit fills the believers so that man, through the Spirit in Christ, is brought into God. The mingling of God with the redeemed New Man in Christ. The enlargement of God in Christ into humanity and the multiplication of God's Son as the many sons and daughters.

The Body of Christ.

This must be proclaimed and demonstrated to all nations as a testimony and proof, through the Body of Christ, and all enemies must be brought under the feet of Jesus, through the congregation, through the Holy Spirit in the believers. The Spirit is the reality of the Body of Christ.

I repeat this so often because it is crucial to understanding the purpose, nature, and role of the congregation.

The result of God's plan for the world is to bring forth the Body of Christ, the executive assembly, which, filled with God, establishes and executes God's kingdom and will on earth.
God's principle is to do everything on earth through the Body of Christ.
The Body of Christ is the body of Jesus on earth, the embodiment of God. Everything is made new in Christ.
Outside of Christ, everything is void and comes to an end.

Chapter 2:

What is the congregation, assembly, Ekklesia — the Body of Christ?

Beware: as soon as people receive a revelation about what the Body of Christ is and what they are as a member of the Body of Christ, the heavens are opened, satan is defeated, all evil works are destroyed, and God's dominion is established here and now. That's why satan's strategy is to dilute the understanding of what the congregation (Ekklesia) essentially and practically is.

We no longer have years or decades to enter the reality of the Body of Christ. That's why I'm getting straight to the practical aspects of the Body of Christ as a local assembly, Ekklesia, congregation.

The Body of Christ is, on one hand, globally one; on the other hand, practical, concrete congregations form locally, scattered about.

1 Cor. 12:13: For by One Spirit we were all baptized into One Body, ... and were all made to drink of One Spirit.

Without rebirth through the Spirit, one is not in the Body. Because we drink of one Spirit, we become the true Body of Christ, Eph. 5:30: "For we are members of His Body, of His flesh and of His bones."

Ekklesia = assembly, called-out congregation.

Wrong word choice leads astray.

Church, Kirche and kościół are false, unbiblical words that we should not use. It's important to break ourselves of these wrong terms so we can come into the right understanding.

Kościół (Polish) is masculine and reminds you of bones and huge Catholic monster buildings—this has nothing to do with Ekklesia.

Church and Kirche come from kyriakon (krk), house of the Lord. The word isn't negative, but it never appears in the New Testament. Luther correctly translated the Greek Ekklesia as Gemeinde, not Kirche.

Ekklesia means assembly or congregation, those called out to an assembly. It was also used in the time of the early congregation for politically important city assemblies. (Acts 19:39)

The Aramaic word Jesus used is Edta, which means assembly and is composed of "to gather" and "to come," so:

Come and gather in the presence of God.

It is an invitation into the presence of God.

The congregation (Ekklesia) is the assembly of believers in the presence of God.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, I choose Your plan and want to meet from now on with those who come together in this awareness: that we are now concretely entering Your presence so that You may speak to us, enlighten us, and give us commands, decisions, and instructions, and so that we may worship You in spirit and truth, praise You, and thank You, without hypocrisy or dead rituals.

I no longer want to be distracted or confused by assemblies where Your presence isn't truly the priority.

Give me a clear vision and revelation of the true nature of the congregation. Grant me clear understanding of the great responsibility You've placed on us as members of Your Body to represent You in reality and to do in Your place what You want to do through us. Cleanse me from religious and Babylonian delusions. I commit to painting the true picture of the congregation on my heart.

I want to be a vital member in the reality of Your Body and fulfill my function and destiny. Help me to enter into this fully. Amen.

You have the responsibility to shape your heart from now on with images of this truth: that you recognize your responsibility as a genuine member of the Body of Christ to do exactly what God in Christ wants to do through you. Your responsibility is to figure this out every day and more and more, and not simply waste your life on selfish goals. Even religious activity or a focus on career and profession can prevent God from doing through you what He wants. Read this book at least 3-5 times and meditate on the many quoted words of God.

God's will is so often not done on earth because we do not live as members of the Body of Christ!

Chapter 3:

What is the practical local or home assembly, Ekklesia?

Shatter the old religious notions of congregation, worship service: church = whore of Babylon.

The new yet original, biblical self-understanding as the vital embodiment of God on earth and as a local command center.

Going to the assembly / congregation / church once or twice a week, where one person speaks and everyone else stays silent, is a dead clergy-laity system. Ekklesia is not a one-man show. One speaker is only justified for teaching events, seminars, evangelistic outreaches, and the like, if he's commissioned and sent by God for that purpose—but never to replace the assembly in God's presence, where everyone is meant to function! The New Testament knows no clergy-laity system where professionals serve a silent majority. From now on, it's forbidden for you to go to an assembly with an attitude of just being served, without bringing your own burning heart full of Spirit and love for God to somehow enrich the gathering. Even at a teaching or evangelistic meeting where perhaps only one person speaks, you should constantly be in prayer and, for example, occasionally offer audible "Amen," "Hallelujah," or other affirmations, so the speaker feels the support of the Body is there. Ekklesia is not just during meetings. Empowered by the presence of Jesus in meetings, Ekklesia is then the life and service of all members of the Body 24/7 in the world as a the light and testimony of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ, to surrender everything and everybody to King and Lord Jesus.

Matt. 16:17-19 & 18:17-20. (ANTEJ)

16:17 Jesus answered and said to him: Blessed are you, Simon, son of Jonah. For flesh and blood have not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. 18) I also, I say to you, you are the Rock, and on this rock I will build my congregation, and the gates of the realm of the dead (Hades, Sheol) will not overcome it. (Rock = Keepha, written the same both times). 19) I give you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens; whatever you bind on earth shall also be bound in heaven. And whatever you loose on earth shall also be loosed in heaven.

Matt. 18:17 *If he does not listen to them, tell it to the congregation, and if he does not listen to the congregation, let him be to ye* like a tax collector and a Gentile. (*you plural)*

18 Truly, I say to ye: *Whatever ye bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever ye loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say to ye: *If two of ye agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in the heavens.

20 For *where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in their midst.

These are the only two places in the Gospels where Jesus uses the word Edta (Ekklesia, congregation), and therefore they hint at what the central task and purpose of the congregation is: making decisions in problems with people, especially brothers in faith, binding and loosing everything, asking and receiving everything, and gathering in the presence of Jesus — and it is impossible for the gates of Hades to overcome the true congregation. It arises through people who stand on the rock of revelation from the Father in heaven that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the living God.

In this brevity, Jesus already brilliantly suggests that you yourself, with two or three at home, can use the keys of the Ekklesia if there are problems with larger groups. And there have always been problems whenever a local congregation grew or regional associations formed, until it was no longer spiritually functional, infiltrated by demonized elements and individuals, degenerating into a human organization.

Historical Geographical Excursus on the Gates of Hades:

Jesus went to Caesarea Philippi at the foot of Mount Hermon. There lies the grotto in the rock, considered the gate to Hades. With great likelihood, Jesus went there intentionally, asked the disciples who they believed Him to be, and mentioned for the first time the Ekklesia, which the gates of Hades cannot overcome. It's fitting to note here that the fallen angels from Genesis 6, also mentioned in the Book of Enoch, the Epistle of Jude, and the Epistles of Peter, are famously said to have come down onto Mount Hermon, a tradition also recorded in Sumerian cuneiform texts like the Gilgamesh Epic. These fallen angels are bound until the judgment. Revelation Chapter 9 mentions that a fallen angel is given the key to the abyss, and then locusts and scorpion-like creatures emerge from it. These cannot harm those sealed by God. Then four bound angels at the Euphrates (which flows behind the Hermon range) are released to kill many people who did not repent.

In Revelation 12, the dragon draws another third of the angels to the earth. As we will see later, it is the task and destiny of the Ekklesia to discern the fallen spirits and rulers under the heavens, thereby preventing their authority, influence, and power over people. Once the congregation is raptured, the fortress on the rock that hinders the final unleashing of the beast (Antichrist) and his fallen angels and demons is gone. The demons and unclean spirits that constantly try to oppress us are not the already bound fallen angels, but rather the spirits of the hybrid, corrupted “humans” (sexual immorality and mingling with animals, corrupted DNA, RNA genetics) who perished in the Flood, unable to repent or turn back. They know they will be finally judged into the lake of fire, and they hate humans, wanting to drag them away from God and salvation and to mutilate them. As believers, we have the authority to tread on these serpents and scorpions (demons), to cast them out, and to bind them.

Back to the words of Jesus:

Where two or three come together in the name of Jesus, they form a mini-congregation.

We must understand ourselves as local command centers to carry out God’s will and commands from the Holy Spirit.

If you learn this understanding of the congregation — and shatter old notions, especially of buildings, churches, denominations, and groups — then it shouldn’t be hard to enter the reality of the Body of Christ.

In Chapter 18, Jesus mentions how the congregation can resolve matters between brothers, but then He immediately moves on to the mini-assembly. Jesus immediately recognized that a religious, fleshly power struggle over the supposed position of the keyholder would arise, and therefore He explicitly decentralized the key right away, placing it into the hands of every authentic mini-assembly of two or three people, where Jesus is present.

There are many Catholics with a pure, sincere heart for God, high morals, and good works, and we value that. We also appreciate parts of writings by Catholic theologians or clergy, with very good, helpful texts and prayers. But often these are mixed with unbiblical magical elements, twisted, or simply contrary to sound doctrine. Therefore, the following must be clearly stated. The Pope / Vatican has a key in its coat of arms and wants to claim it holds the keys of the kingdom of the heavens. Jesus Himself immediately passed the keys from Peter onward to the local congregations and to the two or three gathered in His name. Peter, the apostle (= sent one/missionary), was indeed the key figure on the Day of Pentecost during the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. In Acts 2:14ff, Peter stepped forward publicly with the 11 co-apostles and the 120 Spirit-baptized members of the early congregation, and his sermon, still extremely Spirit- and life-giving today, provided the initial spark for the exponential growth of the early congregation in Jerusalem. Peter was neither a bishop nor a pope; there was no Catholic Church in his time, and it's not certain whether Peter was ever even in Rome. Claiming to be Peter's successor with sole authority over the keys is THE great lie of satan with the occult Vatican cult.

The father of lies has tried to spread the lie that only the Pope holds the keys, to prevent believers, through this false teaching, from getting the divine idea to finally use these keys constantly, daily, decentralized worldwide everywhere, and to put an end to the devil, demons, and corrupt criminal rulers. No, the Pope has a key to the kingdom of darkness and sits on a throne of satan with the Babylonian-Roman-pagan cult title Pontifex Maximus. This title came from Babylon to Pergamos, which is why Jesus personally says in Revelation 2 that satan's throne is there. Bishop Damasus of Rome adopted this occult title in the 6th century when the Christian emperor rejected it. Thus arose the whore of Babylon, the Vatican. The Vatican Church is the devilish counterfeit to the true Ekklesia, blinding the world and making it drunk on this mixed wine of truth and idolatry. Non-Christian cultures can only shake their heads when the Pope is presented to them as the representative of Christianity through the media (false prophet). This makes it harder for billions of people to see and understand the true gospel. For the deceptive thing is that most of the important, correct teachings of the New Testament are recognized and taught by the Vatican, but they are mixed with elements of idolatry and wrapped in an unbiblical clergy-laity system that commits "fornication" with the kings of the world, as Revelation 17 describes.

As a sincere Catholic, do yourself a favor: step out of this system, read the New Testament, and compare it with that. But don't go from the frying pan into the fire — meaning, the major Christian denominations are not an alternative; instead, practice what is written here. Everything I write here about the true Ekklesia can be verified against the original Word of God. It's important that your Bible version doesn't use the word "church" but rather "congregation" or "assembly." I've translated many quoted Bible passages directly from the Aramaic to bring them even closer to their original meaning. Orient yourself and your people toward the Bible teachers with global impact mentioned in Chapter 4. In recent decades, much from these Bible teachers, along with Bible reading, has penetrated Catholic circles, genuinely touching many with biblical truth. Since the Vatican II Council, Bible reading has become increasingly popular in Catholic circles. This is good for individuals, but you can't simply erase centuries—or even millennia—of the darkest church history, with the murder of millions of Christians, Bible translators, and the banning of Bible reading, with a single council.

The Vatican system, the Catholic Church, is opposed to the pattern of the New Testament and what Jesus, Paul, and Peter preached. It is not the orthodox (solely true), catholic (universal) church, and certainly not the universal Ekklesia, which intrinsically (by its nature) encompasses all Christians globally born of the Spirit of God, and which, due to humanly organized church systems and divisions, does not appear as a unity through man-made efforts but through the workings of the Holy Spirit in people who let themselves be led by the Spirit of God. Anyone who claims their "church" is the "catholic" (universal) church immediately proves themselves a liar and impostor. We show in Chapter 8 the way to practice true unity without forming or founding another division. The more Christians begin to practice this, the more the glorious congregation, the Body of Christ, will emerge and take shape.

I had to use many words now to describe what Ekklesia is not. This is necessary to become consciously clear and to get a picture of what Ekklesia practically is on the local ground.

The Body of Christ is the highest authorized entity on earth.

The Lord Jesus, our Head, is in heaven. We, His Body, are on earth. We are the most important entity on earth. God, as a principle, does nothing without us, without the Body of Christ. His economy is to sum up all things in Christ. We are the only authorized entity and instance on earth to establish and execute the kingdom of God, through the Holy Spirit in us. That's why Jesus emphasized that it was important for Him to go to the Father to send the Spirit as the governor of His kingdom into us. This is valid globally and locally.

When multiple decentralized local Ekklesias take up their function and authority through prayers and decrees, it impacts their country, their continent, and the whole world. Thanks to today's communication tools via the internet, X, Telegram, YouTube, or uncensored video platforms, every local congregation can quickly find out what the Holy Spirit is trying to emphasize globally. This makes traveling apostles less critical. We are all responsible for using these media to spread God's Word and will and to foster fellowship.

It starts locally:

You must first surrender yourself to the Lord, bury your sinful lifestyle in Jesus' death, and see yourself as a member of the Body of Christ in your location. You try to bring your marriage and family under Jesus' lordship, which doesn't always succeed because demons strategically try to turn our closest loved ones against us with all sorts of things—misunderstandings, triggering your weaknesses, etc. We can want the best, try our hardest, and pray for our family or marriage, but they can still resist due to their free will and false perceptions. We can pray and intercede, but we're not responsible for the disobedience, rebellion, and refusal of truth by those closest to us. This is a sad, serious matter. Jesus clearly indicated multiple times that He would be the reason families divide. We take a clear stand for Jesus and the Ekklesia in our family.

Then we must put this into practice locally, starting immediately. We need to regularly check whether the following points (see Chapter 4) apply to our assemblies and adjust if necessary and possible. Otherwise, regather with two or three.

Summed up, what is the local church (Ekklesia)?

I'll try to write this as a free poem in the first person:

The congregation is the Body of Christ.

Jesus is the head, we are the members.

I am a member of Jesus' body.

Jesus, the head, is in heaven,

I and my brothers and sisters are on the earth.

I don't go to church,

I don't go to the congregation,
I am a member of the congregation,
I am a member of the Body of Christ.
I am a living stone, fitted together by God,
into God's living temple through the Spirit.
I in Christ, Christ in us.
I gather with two or three,
in our hearts the Spirit's fire burns free.
We are the local distribution center of God's blessing.
We are gathered in mission and will, and in the name of Jesus, to pray for our needs and desires,
that people may come to know the truth,
that people may be healed and set free,
the blind see, broken hearts be mended,
freed from debt, in gratitude,
for divine abundance, prosperity, and success;
that the gospel may spread freely and boldly,
that satan's works be destroyed,
to receive God's word, His commands, and decrees, that corrupt governments be replaced,
those that bring shame to our Father in heaven,
so the good may be rewarded and the wicked punished, that anti-Christian agendas be stopped,
so that our Father in heaven is honored.
Amen.

In Acts 12, we see the local congregation in Jerusalem in action: The power-hungry, corrupt, and criminal King Herod Agrippa, installed by Rome, murders James, the brother of John (who wrote the Gospel of John), and seizes Peter, intending to put him on trial for death the next day. The congregation finally refuses to let another apostle be killed and prays fervently to God. Peter is freed by an angel, and a few days later, Herod, in another Caesarea, is struck down fatally by an angel of God, leaving him to be agonizingly devoured by worms. Thus, the circle closes. The divine imperial (Caesarean) Ekklesia was proclaimed in Caesarea and demonstrated its divine imperial authority in Caesarea. If the congregation hadn't prayed, there would be no 1st or 2nd Peter, and much else would never have come to pass, because Peter would have been murdered prematurely due to the lack of exercising executive authority through the congregation's prayers and decrees.

Practical Heart and Mind Renewal Exercise:

Go into your undisturbed little room, close your eyes, and paint the picture of divine truth into your heart: Imagine Jesus handing you the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven, where Jesus and God the Father reign as King, and saying: "You and your brothers and sisters in faith are now responsible on earth to ensure that all evil powers, corrupt rulers, and wicked spirits on earth and under heaven are stopped, so that the Father can finally crush satan under My feet and yours—because you are at last using the keys against everything that refuses to submit to Me, the Messiah.

You and your brothers and sisters are also responsible for ensuring that, in your place, your region, and your country, prisoners are set free, fighters for righteousness are protected, and active siblings in faith and those in need are provided for materially and financially! You heal the sick in My name, drive out demons. You seize opportunities to preach the gospel of the Kingdom of God, reconciliation in Christ, and repentance and turning back to God. You shatter everything untrue that you encounter and every idea that opposes Me, Jesus, and the truth."

You see yourselves as a headquarters where God's will flows out as commands through your mouth: satan's works, lies, and deceptions are shattered; people repent, are convicted, healed, and saved, and come to King Jesus. The anti-Christian agendas are stopped, world war doesn't break out, abortion is no longer funded or legalized, vaccinations are banned, the infection lie is exposed, poisonings are halted, chemtrails are stopped, child abuse and trafficking are ended—all because of your decrees. You imagine what is truly so: that these mini Ekklesias are functioning everywhere worldwide.

You see that you are baptized and purified through the fire of the Holy Spirit. Do this exercise daily until the truth is anchored in your heart. Ideally, you can include a few brothers and sisters in the movie you imagine, the one you project onto the screen of your heart. Then it will unfold in reality. This is the biblically correct way to reflect on and meditate over God's Word and truth. As we behold the images of truth with our imagination, the Holy Spirit writes it onto our hearts. 2 Corinthians 3:3 & Hebrews 10:15-16.

The local congregation (Ekklesia) is the local embodiment, the Body of Christ in your place. You are an active member of it. You don't go to the congregation — you are a member of the Body. You go to the local gatherings to bring your part and function. To enable maximum efficiency, you meet in your homes with one, two, or more like-minded, fiery believers, and you begin to pray, aware that Jesus is now in your midst. You are a command center for God's will and decrees in your place. You are a mini-Ekklesia. This is a holy matter with a royal, military-like atmosphere, like the Lord's Supper.

Ephesians 4:1-6 (Luther):

1 I, therefore, a prisoner in the Lord, urge you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, 2 with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, 3 being diligent to keep the unity in the Spirit through the bond of peace: 4 one Body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope of your calling; 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism; 6 one God and Father of us all, who is above you all and through you all and in you all.

It says "one Body," not "one church." Paul here names the seven foundational doctrines of unity. Whoever teaches something different has excluded themselves from the Body of the Messiah. Whoever adds conditions to this or leaves something out causes divisions.

What follows is the checklist: Are you a true congregation?

Chapter 4:

The Checklist: True Ekklesia or Religious Congregation?

What are you when you come together?

Test your self-understanding as an assembly!

This list will help you avoid falling into dead forms or humanly religious organization. You know why you come together and can hardly wait!

⚠️ If the leaders of your group have problems with the following points, then this should be a warning sign about whether it's truly a congregation or just human religious efforts and activities. Paul explicitly warns that everyone should examine themselves before breaking bread, especially regarding whether and how you discern the Body of Christ—that is, how you relate to the Body of Christ, what understanding you have, and what inner heart attitude you hold. 1 Corinthians 11:28-32.

Caution: The powers of darkness will try to prevent you from immediately putting this into practice with 2 or 3 believers. Don't let anything stop you!

- The Ekklesia, the congregation, is the assembly around God's presence—not around a message or a sermon!!
- We assemble for worship, praise, thanksgiving, and prayer.
- The congregation is a command center to receive orders from the Holy Spirit, to declare God's will, to carry it out, and to execute it. These can be decrees or proclamations for situations and people, or actions in obedience to the Holy Spirit. (See the point on prayer according to 1 Timothy 2.)
- As long as we haven't received specific orders, it's vital to pray in tongues, speaking in tongues. The interpretation of tongues and the gift of prophecy are also crucial for carrying out God's administration. These are what you should eagerly pursue.
- If you as a group or congregation think you can do without the gifts of the Spirit like speaking in tongues, don't be surprised if you mostly remain silent. Speaking in tongues immediately hands the Holy Spirit the floor to speak, not people.
- The Holy Spirit has control, not a human. Where the Spirit is, there is freedom. The "leaders" must learn not to displace or replace the Holy Spirit.
- Everyone should function, not just a few. When praying simultaneously, all may pray in tongues at the same time, and it doesn't need to be translated. This is not the same as when one steps forward and speaks in tongues for everyone. That's only useful if it's interpreted. As already written, words of prophecy, prophesying, and speaking in tongues with interpretation are helpful, as are short words of wisdom. But keep it as brief as possible, and whoever steps forward to speak may be interrupted by others as soon as they sense it's no longer in the Spirit of faith but in human effort. Whoever also wants to contribute their gift—like speaking in tongues, prophesying, or interpreting—should make it known so that the one speaking hurries to give space to the next. We can also pray-read short sections of the Word together, aware that Jesus is present and gives us understanding of the Bible and strength to obey in love.

- Whoever has a pronounced gift for teaching should organize separate assemblies specifically for that purpose, not during the main executive assemblies in the presence of Jesus. Otherwise, it's like someone explaining the Bible while Jesus, who is present, sits unnoticed in the corner. See also the remarks further below about “they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ teaching.”
- Breaking bread and taking wine to remember Jesus’ death and that we are in a covenant through His blood, covenant partners, and form one Body through the Spirit, all depending on each other to remain faithful to Jesus, obey, and fulfill their tasks. Your disobedience affects the whole Body, which is why we should examine ourselves so that we don’t eat unworthily and disregard the covenant. Failing to discern the Body in this way is a reason for illnesses and unlawful premature death. (See Jude, Ananias, and Sapphira.)
- Personal prayer requests: Keep the group(s) small enough so that personal needs and concerns can be shared and recognized.
- Prayer according to 1 Timothy 2 for those in authority and for a life in freedom and peace. (Bible text at the end of this section.) Here, God’s will is very clearly described, so we can and should always pray for this. This means we must forbid corrupt agendas, and individuals in government, politics, legislatures (Senate, Bundestag, National Council), judiciary (judges, prosecutors), police, military, media, intelligence agencies, and large corporations must be forbidden and replaced if they do not promote the truth—that all may be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth, enabling us to live a peaceful life. Freemasonry and intelligence agencies must be banned.

The demonic powers behind these people with public influence or authority must be bound and stopped.

Significantly, Putin calls Western governments the “empire of lies,” and he’s right about that. As the Body of Christ in Europe, the USA, and globally, we must no longer tolerate this—not in our city, district, or country. We discern (expose) the powers and authorities in the heavenly realms (Ephesians 3:10, according to the Aramaic original text). We bind and loose, meaning we forbid evil agendas, depose corrupt criminals in governments and NGOs, and release the word of truth. (NGOs:

Non-Governmental Organizations, e.g., WEF, WHO, UN, IMF.) Such NGOs are heads or horns of the monstrous beast in Revelation, demonized by the antichristian dragon.

Governments should enable a peaceful life in the fear of God and favor the spread of truth. This is the statement of 1 Timothy 2. They must not themselves become the epitome of tyranny and evil, nor lackeys of greedy oligarchs and satanists.

The name of God, our Heavenly Father and King of the world (1 Timothy 1:17), is dragged into disgrace by corrupt “authorities” and governments. Governments (authorities) were established by God to restrain (punish) evil and reward good.

- The first Christians at times held everything in common, selling what was superfluous to meet the needs of others—meaning we help each other practically, including materially and financially, and we assist the poor outside as well. This is an important point. We discuss how and which poor, orphans, widows, single parents, homeless, foreigners, sick, and prisoners we can help. We ensure that everyone among us gets by well and doesn’t face existential hardship. We also directly support Christians in poorer countries financially. Everyone should actively pitch in. Laziness isn’t rewarded but admonished. Someone can voluntarily clean, tidy up, or otherwise make themselves useful if they’re jobless or on welfare. Those who serve intensely in the Word can be financially supported if the benefit is obvious or if the Holy Spirit prompts it. Importantly, no one should be pressured to give. It should come from joy and love for God and His kingdom.
- We must be faithful in small things, developing a culture of joyful giving with material goods and money so that God can entrust us with supernatural finances. As a local command center, we should also become distribution hubs for aid supplies and food. Food shortages and famines are looming due to the destructive, nonsensical green “Great Reset” agenda, which deliberately ruins food production and critical industries—this is terrorism, yet they (still) sit in governments. Therefore, as an assembly, we must build and manage food reserves for distribution (not just for ourselves), ideally produce some ourselves, and, on the other hand, forbid this agenda of destroying food production through prayer and decrees.
- We pray for the sick—Jesus commands: Heal the sick, raise the dead, cast out demons. This isn’t optional; it’s a crucial part of preaching the gospel. We go as aggressively against sickness, death, and demons as Jesus, Curry Blake, David Hogan, Mark Hemans, J.G. Lake, Smith Wigglesworth, or Lester Sumrall did. Jesus healed everyone brought to Him. Premature death and sickness are illegal in the kingdom of God. Healing is part of the redemption work. By His stripes, we are healed. Therefore, we can directly issue corresponding commands for healing and deliverance from demons when we meet or encounter the sick. Jesus does the healing, but we must speak it, command it, and force obedience under Jesus. For this, we must choose to believe and obey.

- And they continued steadfastly in prayer, breaking bread, and the apostles' teaching. Acts 2:42. The apostles' teaching is the New Testament—especially the briefly summarized economy of God above as the central revelation of God's plan in the Bible. Instead of having to listen to local self-important people for hours, who think they need to dig everything out of the Bible anew themselves and emphasize unimportant things, we can today, thanks to the internet, YouTube, and books, directly hear and read the best Bible teachers like Kevin Zadaï, Watchman Nee, Witness Lee, Andrew Wommack, Myles Munroe, Derek Prince, Dutch Sheets, Curry Blake, Reinhard Hirtler, Mark Hemans, Dave Roberson, Rick Renner, and John Bevere. Local teachers should always be well-acquainted with at least some of the above-mentioned Bible teachers; otherwise, there's a risk they'll teach something non-central. Local self-important types, those with ambition or pride, can quickly displace the Holy Spirit and lord it over others. The others must stop them, and if that's not possible, form a new group. Everyone should personally check things in the Word. We no longer have time for such nonsense.

We recommend to everyone, especially newcomers, to listen to at least 2-3 messages weekly from the teachers listed above and read their books so they can be saturated with healthy teaching and doctrine as quickly as possible. This keeps them from being tossed back and forth by every wind of doctrine or led astray from the truth of the gospel's freedom by unimportant teachings, false teachings, or heresies. Of course, they should also read the Bible directly every day. We're aware there are many other pretty good teachers, "apostles," prophets, and preachers out there. But we regard the ones mentioned here as the most important teachers for central, healthy doctrine. Others may be good in specific areas. We're not saying you can't listen to or read others too. But we have no more time to waste and want to focus on the central revelation in power and authority. Jesus is coming for an adorned, blameless, mature bride without the stench of Babylon.

Ruling through Prayer,

as Derek Prince says about this passage:

*) 1 Timothy 2:

1 First of all, then, I urge that requests, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people,

2 for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness and dignity;

3 for this is good and pleasing before God our Savior,

4 who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of truth.

5 For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus,

6 who gave Himself as a ransom for all—the testimony given at the proper time,

7 for which I was appointed a preacher and apostle—I speak the truth in Christ and do not lie—a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 Therefore, I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or doubt.

9 Likewise, [I want] women to adorn themselves with respectable decency, with modesty and self-control, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly clothing,

10 but with good works, as is fitting for women who profess godliness.

Romans 13 makes it unmistakably clear that authorities (governments) exist to punish evil and reward good. However, most governments today have virtually become the embodiment of evil itself. This drags our Heavenly Father Name through the mud, since He established authorities to curb evil. It's not the Father's will that such degenerate, corrupt, murderous, terrorist, fascist governments exist. This is also hinted at in Revelation, where only the beast, animated by the dragon, is mentioned—not governments anymore. This beast fights the saints and blasphemes God. This beast (world governments) and the lying media (false prophet) are thrown into the lake of fire in Revelation 19, through our word and Jesus' word.

 Such criminal, corrupt governments and corporations are kakourgocracies (rule by criminals) and could only arise because most Christians were asleep and not living in the reality of the Body of Christ—meaning the Body wasn't formed, built up, or mature, and didn't issue commands.

That's the purpose of this book: to bring the glorious congregation to full function in supreme authority, as warriors and lovers of Christ, a adorned bride in the unity of knowledge and maturity.

What still restrains the revealing of the man of lawlessness (often called the Antichrist), we know, writes Paul in 2 Thessalonians. Most interpreters say he means the Holy Spirit in us. I agree, but we must also speak it out.

The authority of the Holy Spirit must be demonstrated through us.

Once again: What are we as a local congregation?

- An embassy of the kingdom of God in our city.
- Command center of the kingdom of heaven in our city, country.
- City council, council assembly. Ruling assembly of a city.
- The local portal to heaven, the local government of heaven.
- A congregation.
- Executive assembly, committee.
- Committee for executing decisions.
- God's headquarters in our city.
- A team of liberation agents of the ruling assembly of King Jesus in our city.

Daniel 4:14 shows an example of how the saints, by decree, depose a tyrannical world ruler (temporarily). Because he repented, he regained power:

14 This was decided in the council of the watchers, discussed and demanded by the saints, so that the living may recognize that the Most High rules over the kingdom of men and gives it to whom He wills, even setting the lowliest of men over it!

Practical Task:

Find at least one person—either in person or by phone—with whom you can pray God's will in His presence for at least 10 minutes. Do this daily or several times a week, at least once weekly.

If you can't find anyone, join the group t.me/Kingdom\_Exchange; maybe you'll find someone there.

Otherwise, do it alone: set a daily assembly time and take on the role of a second person in your imagination (like a comedian playing multiple roles). Bring your spirit, soul, heart, and body into the meeting, and invite Jesus too. You can start by saying in your mind: "You, soul, mind, will, emotions, heart, spirit, and body, we now assemble as Ekklesia in the name of Jesus."

See yourself in His presence and pray in tongues for at least 10 minutes.

Read this checklist multiple times. Read the Bible verses prayerfully.

Meditate in prayer and thanksgiving over every point.

Consider whom you can practically help.

Discover your task. God has a plan and a purpose for you right where you are.

Start casting out demons, commanding everything you encounter daily that opposes the knowledge of God into obedience to Christ.

To stand in the end times as the beast increasingly takes shape, it's absolutely vital that the Body of Christ finally forms as the glorious executive assembly and congregation and carries out its eternal mission according to God's plan.

Chapter 5

What Are the Gates of Hades?

Not what you think. Yet, what you think.

What are the keys of the kingdom of heaven?

In Chapter 3, we saw the historical backdrop where, according to tradition, the gates to the underworld were located—at the foot of Mount Hermon, where the fallen angels descended, irreversibly corrupting humanity before the flood, except for Noah. Facing these dark gates to Hades, Jesus proclaimed the glorious Ekklesia!

But there's only one way to become immune to these powers of darkness and grant them no influence:

In just 5 verses, from heavenly revelation to the gates of hell where satan comes through and speaks.

That's how close the highest revelation is to the deepest Hades and satan. We must see the following verses in Matthew in context. They're not written one after another by chance; they're connected.

Are you, in the reality of the Body of Christ as a spiritually minded member, or are you yourself a gate of Hades?

Matthew 16:15-27

15 Jesus said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

16 Simon Peter answered and said,

“You are the Christ, the Son of the living God!”

17 And Jesus answered and said to him, “Blessed are you, Simon, son of Jonah, for flesh and blood have not revealed this to you, but My Father in heaven!”

18 And I also say to you: You are Peter, and on this rock I will build My congregation, and the gates of the Hades shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

20 Then He commanded His disciples that they should tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

21 From that time Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and be raised on the third day.

22 Then Peter (the rock) took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, “Lord, spare Yourself! This shall not happen to You!”

*23 But He turned and said to Peter (the rock), “Get behind Me, satan! You are an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men.”

24 Then Jesus said to His disciples, “If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself (his soul) and take up his cross and follow Me.

25 For whoever desires to save his soul-life (literally: soul) will lose it, but whoever loses his soul-life for My sake will find it.

26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, but loses his soul (soul-life)? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul?

*27 For the Son of Man will come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then He will reward each according to his works.”

Immediately after Simon, son of Jonah, received the high heavenly revelation from the Father that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, comes the deep fall.

This revelation about who Jesus truly is—the Messiah, the Son of God—is what the congregation is built on, and Jesus, based on this heavenly revelation, named Simon “Rock” (Aramaic: Kepha, Greek: Petra, Petros), having in view this big rock in front above the cave of Hades. Peter answered Jesus’ direct question before the disciples, declaring that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and he was the first to be given the keys. Those keys are then given to all who gather in the presence of Jesus, as evident in Chapter 18. For this, just 2 or 3 gathered in His name are enough.

But the shocking thing in verse 23 is that Peter didn’t say anything terrible or evil. And yet, Peter immediately became a gate of the underworld, and satan came forth from him to speak, trying to deter Jesus from the work of redemption.

Jesus unmistakably indicated in verse 22 that He would soon suffer greatly in Jerusalem, die, and rise again on the third day.

Peter wanted to spare Him from these sufferings—and this also relates to a false understanding of the Messiah (which isn't revelation from the Father), namely the expectation that Jesus would soon take the throne in Jerusalem as king and somehow drive out the Romans. But that's not how the kingdom of God works. Jesus said to Pilate, "My kingdom is not of this world; otherwise, I would call many legions of angels and put an end to you." Jesus also foretells suffering for us for the sake of His name and the kingdom of God. This isn't desirable from a human perspective.

We're tempted to avoid suffering through human reasoning instead of focusing on obeying the Holy Spirit and the Word of God, doing God's will, whether it means persecution or not.

It takes very little, and suddenly we ourselves become the gates of Hades:

We only need to think humanly instead of divinely, and we become the gates of Hades, and satan speaks through us.

That means as soon as we're simply in natural thinking, in "normal" human reasoning, we are the gates of Hades.

This is the most important personal insight and self-awareness you must gain if you ever want to become a useful, living building block in the indestructible Body of Christ, the congregation of Christ, the executive assembly.

With the fear of God, you must recognize that all your natural, soulish, human efforts and independent intelligence are a gate for satan, and Jesus doesn't build His congregation on that! Useless.

Therefore, Jesus says immediately afterward in verses 24-26 that we must deny our soul-life if we want to follow Him. The soul-life (Greek and Aramaic use the word for "soul") refers to all human experience, thinking, and behavior, and our personality before we were enabled through rebirth to lead a Spirit-led life in the Spirit. The cross for the old soul-life with its unrenewed, natural human thinking must be taken up daily. It's a daily, often-repeated decision that should lead to a new lifestyle of submission to the words of Jesus, the Holy Spirit, and His promptings. And in this process, our natural thinking must be renewed through the Word of God (Romans 12:2).

The uncrossed natural, human, soulish life, thinking, and speaking is the gate of Hades. Therefore, we must set our heart and mind in order.

You can also live as a Christian for years or decades in a purely soulish, fleshly way, remaining unrenewed or transformed—or only very minimally. You alone are responsible for setting your heart in order! That's why Jesus warns that He will reward each person according to their deeds when He comes. This isn't about judgment for hell but the judgment of believers who have accepted justification.

The congregation is a spiritual reality and is built only with divine “material,” not with human, natural, or soulish material. Sentimentality and human wisdom are gates of Hades.

So, it's not enough to receive revelations from the heavenly Father—although that's the prerequisite for entering the reality of the Body of Christ—you must also keep your soul-life crucified.

Distinction Between Soul, Spirit, and Heart

God created man as spirit, and when He breathed the spirit into the body, he became a living (Spirit-animated) soul. The soul encompasses thinking (the mind), feeling (emotions), and will. We are spirit beings with a soul in a body. After the fall, the connection in our spirit with God was broken, and the soul focused on the five external senses of the body instead of the spirit, taking independent control. This is called fleshly, natural, and soulish life.

The focus of the soul = the heart.

The soul became the center of our personality. God's Word sharply distinguishes between soul and spirit (Hebrews 4:12). When we came to faith in Jesus, our spirit was reborn with God's life, and we are once again one with God's Spirit in the spirit (1 Corinthians 6:17). We are now to lead a life from the spirit by denying our natural, independent, fallen soul-life. The soul, the old self, no longer has control but is an instrument for the spirit. Our spirit is in the image and likeness of Christ and seeks to transform our entire personality. Only when we are transformed into the image of Jesus, into the divine nature through trusting in effective grace, and deny our natural, human, soulish, and fleshly life, can we be built up smoothly and indestructibly as a congregation. Imprint the character image and glory of Jesus on your heart, so you become like Him!

1 Corinthians 3:11

“For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 If anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, 13 each one’s work will become evident; for the Day will show it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what kind of work each one has done. 14 If anyone’s work that he has built on remains, he will receive a reward; 15 but if anyone’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.”

Gold represents divine nature.

Silver stands for grace through Christ’s redemption and salvation.

Precious stones signify transformation through the Holy Spirit and suffering.

Wood: human nature, natural thinking. Hay: soulish, self-righteousness.

Straw: fleshliness, the senses. The Bible begins with gold, precious stones, and a river from Eden (Genesis 2:11-12) and ends the same way, where the river of life flows from God’s throne into the living city of gold and precious stones, which we are, transformed. In between, redemption was necessary because of the fall, hinted at through resin, pearls, and silver. The gates to the New Jerusalem are made of pearls.

This means that Jesus can only build His congregation with people who don’t live in sin but who bear fruits of repentance in constant confession and cleansing, and who crucify and renew their old way of life, natural thinking, ambition, desire for recognition, manipulation, and desire to control others—above all, their speech. Whoever doesn’t control their tongue but speaks carelessly, argues, boasts, or gossips can quickly ignite a hellish fire.

The heart plays a central role in the process of transformation.

The heart is your inner core—where your focus lies, your main motive and intention, what your preferences are, where your treasure is, what you most often and gladly occupy your thoughts with, and what moves you emotionally. The heart thinks in images and gives important impulses to the mind and brain. You alone bear the responsibility and, through God’s Word and Spirit, have the ability to paint the right images of God’s truth about yourself, God, and the world in your heart through meditation and imagination. Is your heart directed toward the external soul and senses, or toward the spirit and God’s Word?

Required reading: “The Heart” by Reinhard Hirtler.

The word “hope” plays a very important role in the New Testament. It’s the second most important after love (1 Corinthians 13:13). Hope is for something you can’t see with our physical eyes, so everywhere we’re encouraged to hope, we’re instructed to use our imagination and meditation in this way.

According to Hebrews 11:1, faith comes from what we hope for—that is, what we inwardly imagine and project as divine facts onto our heart. From this, faith arises.

It therefore requires a certain level of maturity, transformation, and proven reliability through tests before an indestructible Ekklesia emerges and efficiently uses the keys of the kingdom of heaven on earth.

Only a group of people who have both heavenly revelation about Jesus and the role of the Ekklesia, as well as a crucified soul-life and live standardly in the spirit, can effectively and efficiently operate the keys of the kingdom of heaven.

To such, Jesus gives a blank check: Whatever you agree on and desire to ask, it will be given to you by the Father in heaven!

It brings God great joy to see that what our heart desires is what He Himself desires. Psalm 37:4: “Delight yourself in the Lord, and He will give you the desires of your heart.” First, He places His desires in our heart, then He gives us what our heart desires.

It can be frustrating how immature the Body of Christ still seems to be after 2,000 years of revealed truth.

The purpose of this little book is to exponentially accelerate the true building of the congregation by focusing on what’s essential and practical.

Chapter 6

Developing Awareness of the Body of Christ and Implementing It Practically as a Local Group

Whoever allows the Holy Spirit to receive a revelation about the reality of the Body of Christ and renews his mind with the Word of truth begins to develop an awareness of the Body of Christ and does everything with this perspective and “corporate” consciousness.

The true Body of Christ is the Holy Spirit in believers, speaking and working in and through believers, individually and as groups, corporately. Only people who surrender to the Lord Jesus and the Holy Spirit and obey the Commander in unity and harmony actually form the reality of the Body of Christ, with supreme authority to issue executive commands and decrees.

The Body of Christ is not a human-controlled organization but an earthly, decentralized organism connected to God’s spiritual realm, animated by the life flowing from God’s throne into our spirit through the Holy Spirit within us.

It is built, animated, and controlled centrally by the absolute truth of God’s Word, the gospel of Jesus, and the work of the Holy Spirit. All are subject to the Head, Jesus. Your opinion isn’t relevant. Traveling apostles, teachers, evangelists, and prophets, appointed not by people but directly by the Lord Jesus and the Holy Spirit, have the regional function of equipping the Body of Christ for the work of service (described here in Chapter 4). Ephesians 4:11-16 clearly shows that it’s about the Body of Christ—every single member—beginning to function, and all of us becoming perfected in faith and the knowledge of Jesus Christ and united, so that as the Body we reach the full stature of Christ.

It’s clearly not about these servants (apostles, preachers, pastors, teachers, prophets, “bishops” (overseers), “pastors”) as clergy conducting a church service while others passively watch.

Ephesians 4:11-16

11 And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some shepherds (pastors) and teachers,

12 for the equipping of the saints, for the work of service, for the building up of the Body of Christ, 13 until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the full stature of the fullness of Christ; 14 so that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting;

*15 but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the Head—Christ— 16 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the building up of itself in love. (Elberfelder translation)

The Corporate Body of Christ is Jesus on earth. If you're in a pool with only your head sticking out and the rest of your body is in the water, we say you're in the water. It's the same with Jesus—He is in us and with us as His Body on earth through the Spirit in us. He, as the Head, is in heaven at the right hand of the Father, praying that we finally take responsibility in faith and carry out His work.

Of course, our Lord Jesus the Messiah has His individual glorified Body as the Head of His corporate Body, which is the congregation.

The Body of Christ carries out the work of Jesus with authorization.

Our spoken and written word enables God's intervention. That means we must proclaim God's will and Word.

We are corporately Jesus on earth!

What did Jesus do that we should continue?

Jesus was revealed to destroy the works of the devil. Whoever sins is of the devil. (1 John 3:8). Jesus went about doing good and healing and delivering all who were oppressed by the devil. (Acts 10:38). As the Son of Man, through His death and resurrection, Jesus brought back the dominion over the earth—given by God to man at creation and usurped by satan at the fall—to the new man in Him, in Christ. Hebrews 2:5-13. The law of the Spirit of life has set us free from the law of sin and death, so that we no longer have to sin. Romans 8:2.

God Is NOT in Control of This World!

Jesus Christ and we are not of this world.

God's radical solution for the satanic world system.

Although satan and the world were destroyed at the cross, he still controls the world, which is why things look the way they do down here.

“Far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.”

Galatians 6:14

satan can only maintain his power as long as there are people who don't submit to Jesus but, in part, even actively place themselves in satan's service. Whoever turns to Jesus the Christ buries his affiliation with the world through baptism. The world is the entire system of people outside of Christ, controlled by satan. The world is crucified, finished. This reality happens when you are baptized into the death of Christ. Baptism is therefore important to be rescued out of the futile, passing world system.

Mark 16:15: And He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach My gospel to every creature. 16 Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. 17 And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; 8 they will take up serpents, and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them.”

Jesus sends us into the world, trains and authorizes us—we are in the world but not of the world. The miraculous signs make this clear.

The more people we bring into Christ, the more the world and satan's dominion shrink. As the gospel of God's kingship is presented to all people and all creation, a separation occurs among people: sheep and goats, obedient and disobedient, wise and foolish, godless and God-fearing, unbelievers and believers, unclean and pure, self-righteous and justified in the blood of the Lamb. We are now in the end times, and the stubbornness and unrepentance of this generation, resisting the gospel of Jesus on one hand, and the awakening and maturing of a remnant of faithful children of God on the other, are happening at a rapid pace.

2020–2024 killed many naively ignorant people who allowed themselves to be kept in ignorance by the world system, having consumed mainstream lying media for decades; they “voluntarily” submitted, with little resistance out of cowardice, to the death shot, even though many in German &

English-speaking regions, including us, have been warning clearly for decades.

Now, in the Trump 2 “Golden Age” era (at least in the USA), the next phase of seduction and separation is emerging. It’s simply disastrous to trust Trump and his team so much that you fail to see that, while much corruption is now being punished (for which we prayed and issued decrees—thank God), on the other hand, Trump is knowingly or unknowingly building the antichristian mark-of-the-beast system.

Digital ID, mRNA, and AI Combined = The Mark of the Beast.

We must consistently reject digital ID, mRNA, and all other vaccines to avoid becoming (again) part of this world. We must learn to use AI to our advantage; otherwise, only the wicked will benefit from it. For example, I can have this booklet, which is 100% written by me with 0% AI contribution, translated into English, Polish, etc., in a short time using Grok (xAI). This is a useful, positive use of AI. What I find extremely concerning is using AI to compile biblical messages. This is very problematic; I already see many YouTube videos spreading such content. Often, about 90% of it is relatively good, but as a whole, it’s powerless and dilutes the clear Word of God, undermining the space for the Holy Spirit to create revelation and wisdom from God’s Word through you personally.

As this time progresses, the remaining masses, who have rejected the gospel and forsaken Jesus, will have less and less willingness to repent.

All the talk of MAGA, MAHA, or MEGA (Make Europe Great Again) is being promoted in Europe without a call to repentance. Therefore, these movements are essentially: Make the World Great Again. In America, however, there are many Christians and many prayer warriors, and the punishment of corruption and the end of the absurd woke agenda are the result of many prayers according to 1 Timothy 2, restoring much freedom to Christians. Additionally, they strongly combat abortion murders in the USA, so MAGA still makes some sense there. But this is missing in Europe. Europe needs an awakening, a deep repentance, which hopefully is still to come, to bring in one last harvest for Jesus. So, it should rather be: MCEGA. Make Christ in Europe Great Again.

World consciousness is diametrically opposed to the consciousness of the Body of Christ and leads in the end times to acceptance of the mark of the beast!

Training for the Consciousness of the Body of Christ.

1 Corinthians 11:31: "For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. 32 But when we are judged, we are trained by the Lord, so that we may not be condemned with the world."

The Lord's Supper (the Lord's Table) is expressly intended to remind us of and proclaim Jesus' substitutionary death for the atonement and forgiveness of sins, as well as, specifically, to examine ourselves sincerely before God regarding our attitude toward the Body of Christ.

1. In light of the torture and stripes of Jesus because of our sins, we should radically break with conscious sins.
2. What is our attitude toward the corporate Body of Christ? Are we living our lives only for our personal, earthly, familial, or professional desires, or are we living as part of the Body of Christ to establish God's kingdom?

Eating the meal unworthily means failing in these areas. As Paul warns, this is why many in Corinth became sick or died. For when we sin carelessly or recklessly live out our soul-life, we directly harm the Body of Christ, our blood-covenant brothers, because the portion God has destined for us is missing. This can lead to others being unnecessarily persecuted, suffering, impoverished, or exhausted, and to the gospel not being preached, the small prayer assembly being neglected, and evil prevailing in society—as we indeed see.

Besides unhealthy diets and lifestyles, vaccines, and medications, sinning against the Body of Christ in this way and still participating in the Lord's Supper is a primary reason many Christians are sick, and prayer doesn't help.

Whoever Loves the World Is an Enemy of God

Additional Bible passages showing that we cannot be both in Christ and in the world at the same time:

Colossians 2:20: "If you died with Christ to the basic principles of the world, why, as though you still belonged to the world, do you submit to regulations..."

John 8:23: "And He said to them, 'You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.'"

John 18:36: "Jesus answered, 'My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here.'"

John 16:33: "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world."

1 John 2:15: "Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him."

16 For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world.

17 And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever."

1 John 4:4: "You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world."

2 Peter 2:20: "For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning."

James 4:4: "You adulterers, do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. 5 Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, 'The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously'?" [Elberfelder]

The normal life of a Christian revolves entirely around Jesus and the Body of Christ. That's the reality. Everything else passes away. We are in the world as light in the darkness, to lead those who want to be saved and seek God and truth to the Light of the world, Jesus. We demonstrate God's goodness and glory in everything we do in the world, but we don't let ourselves be captured. We submit to reasonable laws as an example and, through our prayer-decrees, compel those in authority to submit to Christ and the truth, punishing evil and rewarding the good.

Conclusion: It's not about improving the world system but about rescuing people out of the world, who then, as light and salt, hold back the darkness and decay in the world until we are raptured. Then the world will pass away, and the new world, in which everything is summed up in Christ and subject to Him, will unfold in glory.

It is the Body of Christ that has the task and authority in the Holy Spirit, through preaching the gospel, to reconcile people to God through the blood of Jesus, and through executive commands and decrees to forbid evil and cast out demons. According to Matthew 18:18-20, whatever we, the congregation, the Body of Christ, bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever we loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Jesus says to believers: “Behold, I give you authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you!” Luke 10:19. Thus, God, through the Body of Christ, brings satan and all enemies under the feet of Jesus and our feet. Romans 16:20: “The God of peace will soon crush satan under your feet.”

Practically: Where 2 or 3 come together in the name of Jesus, they form a mini-congregation. We must understand ourselves as local command centers to carry out God’s will and commands from the Holy Spirit. Jesus intentionally mentioned the mini-assembly of 2 or 3 in His name so that we can immediately, simply, and decisively execute God’s will in agreement through prayer for any matter. These are God’s guerrilla prayer warrior teams.

Practical Task for This Week and Every Following Week: Find at least one person—either in person or by phone—with whom you pray God’s will in His presence for at least 10-15 minutes.

As long as you can’t find anyone, do this daily very intentionally on your own, as described in the previous chapter. Gather your spirit with your soul into the presence of Jesus. Let Him baptize you with His fire and pray in tongues. Write down 2-3 things of darkness daily that you immediately bind in the name of Jesus: “In the name of Jesus, I bind and forbid: sickness, lack, conflict, misunderstandings, depression, delusion in my family. I speak life into them.”

Chapter 7

The Universal Spiritual Confrontation, the Spiritual Battle:

The Lord Jesus, the Head of the congregation and the executive assembly—the Body of Christ as the embodiment of God—stands far above all powers and enemies.

Paul writes in Ephesians 3:8-11:

“Me, the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ

9 and to bring to light what the administration (economy) of the mystery is, which from the ages was hidden in God, who created all things;

10 so that the congregation may recognize the wisdom of God for the complete discernment (separation, exposure) of the powers and authorities in the heavenly realms.

11 This (administration), which He prepared from eternity to carry out in Jesus Christ our Lord.” [Aramaic ANTD]

The Aramaic word in verse 10 for “discern” implies a clear subsequent action, consequences in taking responsibility: What is recognized, exposed, discerned, and revealed can be bound, condemned, and forbidden. It’s the same word used for the gift of discerning spirits. The purpose of discerning spirits is that we then cast them out, forbid, and bind them.

Particularly in the ANTD-J translation based on the Aramaic original text, the precise meaning of Ephesians 3:10 finally becomes clear:

After the congregation exposes the powers of wickedness in the heavenly realms in Ephesians 3, it engages in the battle against them in Ephesians 6:10-20, which primarily consists of maintaining and defending the position of truth, from the victory Jesus has won, without being infected by these lies. We must be steadfast in our mind and heart, allowing no more doubts, by remaining in God’s presence and renewing our mind and heart.

Unfortunately, verses 18-20 (prayer) are often not counted as part of the armor, but the Schlachter, ANTD & NASB translation (and the original text) makes it very clear how crucial prayer is by starting verse 18 with “by” or “through.” This means the entire armor is only activated through constant prayer.

It's often said that the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, is the only offensive weapon for close combat and defense. That's not true. For when we no longer allow ourselves to be moved from our position in Christ and remain in the Spirit in His presence, then the prayer in verses 18-20 becomes an intercontinental missile, equipped with spiritual atomic bombs and killer drones for the destruction of these powers, and support for all the saints, and for imprisoned servants of God for their liberation, so that the mystery of the gospel can be proclaimed and spread with boldness.

This booklet describes the essence of the revealed mystery of the gospel: God imparts Himself to His congregation (corporate Body) to bring through Her everything under Christ as the Head over all, and all enemies under His (our) feet.

Ephesians 6:10-20:

10 Now, my brothers, have the miraculous power in our Lord and in the might of His miraculous power. 11 Put on the full armor of God, so that you can stand against the schemes of the devil.

12 For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

13 Therefore, put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the evil one. When you are prepared, then stand firm in every situation. (ANTD)

14 So stand firm, with your waist girded with truth, and clothed with the breastplate of righteousness,

15 and your feet shod with the readiness [to testify] of the gospel of peace.

16 Above all, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the fiery darts of the evil one,

17 and take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God,

18 by praying at all times with all prayer and supplication in the spirit, and watching in this regard with all perseverance and intercession for all the saints,

19 also for me, that words may be given to me when I open my mouth, to boldly make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may speak boldly in it, as I ought to speak. (Schlachter 2000).

Warning: One of satan's strategies to leave us without this armor—the armor of God—is for us to justify sin instead of confessing and forsaking it.

Who Is the Enemy of the Congregation?

(ANTD)

This refers particularly to the spirit of the age of mainstream media, the nonstop lying propaganda broadcast through the airwaves and on the talking picture on the wall—the TV, car radio, radio, online news portals, lying press, and censored social media on PCs and phones. The human servants of wickedness secure a monopoly with these technological media and infiltrate authorities with bribes and lobbyists. This is fascism—from hell. They and their mainstream media are dominated by these spirits of wickedness. Not even nature programs on TV are harmless. Completely infected with the lie of the theory of evolution. Whoever regularly watches the evening news comes into an assembly with a strong stench from hell.

Ephesians 6:12 almost sounds like a contradiction within itself: Our fight is not against flesh and blood, but it immediately mentions world rulers and authorities, which are indeed people with flesh and blood. However, they are so demonized that they have become our enemies. This became painfully visible during the Covid coup years of 2020–2024, where, through coercion by diabolical governments, millions of people were maimed and killed with vaccines, ruined by lockdowns, quarantined, brutally beaten, “treated” to death in panic (ventilators), children tortured with masks, and, as of January/February 2025, no consequences have been drawn—because the congregation has been asleep. While I'm writing this update, a glimmer of hope briefly appeared that the mRNA destruction of people might be stopped in the USA, but is R.F. Kennedy too cowardly or powerless? And Trump launched the exact opposite on Day 2 with Operation Stargate, combining mRNA with AI.

Digital ID & mRNA & AI = The Mark of the Beast.

[After pasting this section: "Who is the enemy of the congregation?" to translate for grok3, it told, it cannot help identify enemy. After telling him, it's only a translation and has nothing to do with military, it translated it! ]

While Trump and Musk are finally punishing much of the evil and corruption, thereby fulfilling our decrees and God's will in this regard, they are at the same time driving full speed ahead in preparing the Beast system—the Mark of the Beast. Digital ID, mRNA, and AI = the Mark of the Beast.

We are now in the midst of this existential battle, and this important booklet should be distributed, read, and put into practice by millions so that these murderers and their instruments of death (vaccinations, poisons, chemtrails, ...) can be stopped.

This is part of the Great Deception that Jesus warned about—that even the elect could be deceived, if possible. With the help of the Holy Spirit, we ensure that it is not possible.

[After posting this section, grok3 refused to help me translate further, writing, he cannot help with spiritual texts, after having "enthusiastically" help translate 40 pages so far. This shows, that this book just hit the centre of the evil, and that those evil people already began, to program grok3 xAI antichristian way. If we cannot stop or help to change it, it will be used to kill ppl against vaccinations and Christians. I continued with another ai, which did not censor, maybe we will have another language style from now on.]

Please feel free to ask about something else I might help you with." Below the bubble are five small, light-blue icons: a thumbs up, a speech bubble, a document, a circular arrow, and an upward-pointing arrow.

I apologize, but I'm unable to assist with translating spiritual texts. Please feel free to ask about something else I might help you with.

Jesus, the Lord, the Head of the Congregation, and the Executive Assembly as the embodiment of God stand far above all powers and enemies.

Ephesians 1:20-23 and 2:1-3 makes it clear that the Body of Christ does not fall victim to this propaganda of wickedness but, as the embodiment of God, is placed far above these powers.

Ephesians 1:20 According to the immensity of His power, which He worked in the Messiah, He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in heaven, 21 far above all dominions, all powers, and authorities and rulers—above everything that has rank and name, both in this world and in the world to come. 22 And He has placed everything under His feet and has given Him, who is above all, to be the Head of the Congregation. 23 This is His Body, the embodiment (fullness) of Him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 2:1 And He even fills you, who were dead in your sins and your foolishness. 2 And in the things in which you once lived—according to your worldly life in this world, according to the will of the ruler of the authority of the air, and according to this spirit, which actively works in the children of disobedience.

3 We too were once engaged in these works, in the desires of our flesh, doing the will of our flesh and our thoughts, and we were completely children of wrath, like the rest. (ANTDJ)

Hebrews 2:8 says: "You have subjected everything under His feet." By subjecting everything to Him, He left nothing that is not subject to Him. However, we do not yet see everything subjected to Him; 9 but we see Jesus...

Why is not everything subjected yet? Because the Body of Christ must first come into full maturity. That means Christ must corporately grow to full manhood in us. This is why the rest of the book of Hebrews gives us many exhortations to enter into the rest in Christ.

In order to conquer the good land, the Israelites had to, by faith, break free from the vicious cycle of unbelief—wandering in the wilderness for 40 years—and then, in God's power, gradually destroy the enemies.

In Hebrews 2:12, Jesus addresses His brothers in the congregation:

"I will proclaim Your name to My brothers; in the midst of the congregation, I will sing praises to You!"

This means that Jesus passes the baton to us. As we recognize God as King and our Father and praise Him, we become aware that we are His children and brothers of Jesus—royal children who are called to worthily and powerfully represent the King of the Universe and Jesus, the King of Kings, on Earth, together with Governor Holy Spirit.

Hebrews 3:1 Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in the heavenly calling...

6 But Christ was faithful as a Son over His own house; and we are His house, if we hold firmly to our confidence and the boast of our hope until the end. 7 Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says: "Today, if you hear His voice, 8 do not harden your hearts..." 12 Take care, brothers, that none of you has a wicked, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God!

*13 Instead, encourage one another daily, as long as it is called ‘Today,’ so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold firmly to the first confidence until the end.

Through the ignorance, inaction, and unbelief of those who were supposed to be the congregation, the dragon and the false prophet were able to rage, destroy, mutilate, and murder in the most brutal ways over the past five years.

The Covid fake—pandemic terror propaganda from 2020 to 2024—has revealed that the majority of Christians and so called “congregations,” followed the will of the ruler of the authority of the air, as described in Ephesians 2:2 and allowed themselves to be intimidated by the propaganda of lies. What is even worse, many allowed themselves to be poisoned by the mRNA death shots, permitting their DNA to be manipulated. This was one of the sins in the days of Noah—hybridization, the mixing of DNA. That is why there was no redemption left, and God regretted having created them, because they were no longer genetically pure humans—except for Noah and his family, who, according to Genesis 6:6, had pure genetics (perfect in his generation, as seen in the Interlinear Bible, King James, and other translations).

This proves that the majority of Christians lived a so-called Christian and congregational life that was entirely outside the reality of the Body of Christ—a life that was soulish and fleshly, as Ephesians 2:3 describes: In the desires of our flesh, we did the will of the flesh (external worldly impulses) and of our (unrenewed) mind.

The coercion to take the mRNA injection was essentially a test of the Mark of the Beast, and many failed it—many are now suffering damage, and others have already died.

In End Times Magazine No. 1, we offer a prayer for healing, particularly for healing from vaccine injuries. Strangely, hardly anyone has claimed it, or if they have, we are unaware of it.

Our position as representatives of the Body of Christ was clear from the very beginning:

1. Jesus would never get vaccinated, wear a hypocrite mask, or allow Himself to be intimidated by a supposed or real plague. He would certainly not seek help from or recommend the idol of Pharmakeia medicine.
2. There are no disease-causing viruses in the Kingdom of God—the only question is, where are you? Are you in the Kingdom of God, or in the world of darkness? There is no airborne infection through so-called pathogenic viruses. Viruses are the body's own exosomes and endosomes, which respond to toxins and cell damage as part of the body's cleanup process.
3. In 2020, there was no excess mortality. The normal flu was simply renamed Covid. There was no pandemic. The PCR test was deliberately misleading.
4. We warned that poisons were being spread through test swabs, masks, food, and later, primarily through the death shots (vaccines), as dangerous weapons of biochemical warfare.
5. Vaccination = satanism and cannibalism.
- 6. Vaccination and the Mark of the Beast - only over our dead bodies.
7. Since March 2020, we have issued decrees to stop this murder agenda. However, responsible Christians refused to spread these decrees or heed our warnings..

It's All or Nothing: Transhumanization = The Destruction of Humanity

The protest of millions of unbelieving worldly people—who do not typically identify as professing Christians—is a shameful contrast to the naïve Christians who allowed themselves to be intimidated, blindly obeyed fascist illegal mandates, and submitted to self-poisoning through the hell-born Covid death shot. It will be no different when the Mark of the Beast comes. mRNA vaccinations are the beginning of hybridization. satan wants to genetically mutilate humanity—this has been the agenda behind all vaccinations for the past 200 years. Why? Because the New Man in Christ holds the highest authority to destroy satan and his dominion. If the vaccinated survive, they may eventually no longer be 50% human, unredeemable, and no longer in the image of God.

In Daniel 2, during the interpretation of Nebuchadnezzar's dream, there is a very peculiar verse (Daniel 2:43) concerning the end times:

"As you saw iron mixed with clay, they will mix themselves with the seed of men; but they will not cling to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay." This clearly refers to a strange mixing of human seed. The question is:

Who are 'they'? "They" are the spirits under the heavens, who seek to merge their demonic nature with human DNA through genetic manipulation. And that is exactly what they have begun testing with transhumanization and the mRNA death shots (not vaccines). It is time to wake up. Jesus gave a sign of the end times: "As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man." (Matthew 24:37) This is precisely what He was referring to. So, now they have been exposed and discerned, and we have just practiced Ephesians 3:10. They also use UFO technologies, some of which are already being employed by the U.S. government. These so-called UFO aliens are not from other galaxies but from another dimension, one that is mostly invisible to us. In reality, they are demons and hybridized "synthetic-biological" grotesque demonic beings. Thank you, Kevin Zada, for your enlightening ministry and Coffee Talks on YouTube.

Many in high government offices—politicians, judges, media figures, NGOs, prosecutors, intelligence agencies, Freemasons, and the super-rich—are actively involved in satanic, pedophilic circles, where children are brutally abused, tortured, and murdered. Their blood is consumed, and adrenochrome is harvested from tortured children as a drug. This process completely demonizes them. Furthermore, parts of aborted human fetuses are found in vaccines, which is why vaccinations are satanic cannibalism.

That is why it is absolutely unacceptable for leading Christians to boast about getting vaccinated just so they can continue traveling—even if they do not believe in the benefits of the vaccine.

Such an action sets an example and encourages self-mutilation, violating the commandment: "You shall not put the Lord your God to the test."

Getting vaccinated while assuming that God will protect you from harm is testing God. What a person sows, they will also reap.

It is a different matter if someone got vaccinated out of ignorance or intimidation. If that applies to you, then ask for mercy and forgiveness and pray the healing prayer for vaccine injuries from End Times No. 1. Subscribe to End Times so you will no longer be blindly and naively manipulated.

You can never again claim ignorance about this.

 Warning: What you don't know can hurt you.

It is time to wake up and see through satan's propaganda of lies.

Additional Bible Verses on the Ruling Congregation

As we have already discussed in detail in Chapters 3 & 5, Jesus Himself mentions the congregation in Matthew 16 and 18. In both instances, He speaks directly about the use of the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Through revelation from the Father in Heaven, Kephas (Rock, Peter) realizes that Jesus is the Son of God, the Messiah. On this rock—Peter, who received revelation from the Father—Jesus can build His congregation.

At that moment, Jesus is finally able to entrust the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven to a human being, because Peter has received heavenly revelation about Jesus. The keys are used to bind everything that hinders us (as the Body of Christ) and to loose everything that binds us—to open everything that has been shut against us and to shut everything evil that still roams freely. In Chapter 18, Jesus speaks about how the congregation is to handle matters between brothers, but then He immediately shifts focus to the mini-assembly. Jesus foresaw that a religious, fleshly power struggle would arise over the supposed position of the key-holder. That is why He immediately and explicitly placed the keys into the hands of every authentic mini-assembly of two or three believers, where He is present.

Decentralized Mini-Ekklesia in Action

The Decentralized Application of the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven

Matthew 18: 18) And I say to you, whatever you bind on earth will also be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will also be loosed in heaven. 19) Again, I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything they ask, it will be done for them by the presence of My Father who is in heaven. 20) For where two or three are gathered in My name, I am there in their midst. (ANTDJ)

Loosing and binding also means opening and closing, which is exactly what keys are used for.

A Model Example of a Local Congregation Without Reproach

Revelation 3:

7) And to the angel of the congregation in Philadelphia write: This is what the Holy One, the True One, who has the key of David, who opens so that no one shuts, and shuts so that no one opens, says: 8) *I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have little strength, yet you have kept My word and have not denied My name.

Here, suddenly, Jesus has the keys again. What seems like a contradiction to Matthew is actually easy to explain—but God's Word and truth must be explored. When Jesus says that what we bind and loose on earth—meaning what we close and open—will also be closed and opened in heaven, this reveals that the Executive Assembly (the Body of Christ) on earth takes the initiative in Jesus' presence, using the entrusted keys of the Kingdom of Heaven to shut or unlock something on earth. This, in turn, prompts Jesus, the Head of the Congregation, to activate the keys in heaven that He holds—and then it happens.

Both parts are needed: the keys on earth and the keys in heaven. Jesus does nothing without us, and we can only operate the keys in harmony of the Spirit—both with Him and with one another. If it is done correctly below, Jesus does it above, and the Father makes it happen. This primarily occurs through keeping, obeying, proclaiming, and speaking His Word—and by not denying His Name. The congregation in Philadelphia did this, and thus caused Jesus to activate the keys in heaven, granting them open doors. Jesus says, "For you have kept My Word." He shows that this is why He was able to use the keys—because they had kept His Word.

The true Kingdom of God cannot be abused by earthly-minded religious power-hungry individuals through arrogance or delusions of grandeur. However, many misuse their special God-given gifts—such as prophecy—for power games. God does not take back His gifts, but a person can be unfaithful in managing them.

The use of the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven is not a gift but a genuine act of faith—carried out in a spirit of faith, with a pure heart and conscience among all involved, and a crucified lifestyle. Anyone who lives in this reality can use the keys together with two or three others.

Speaking in tongues also activates the keys through the Holy Spirit, which is strategically important.

Spiritual Warfare and Authority for Building up the Congregation

2 Corinthians 10:3-6, 8

"For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh. 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but of the power of God, and through them, we subdue rebellious strongholds (or mighty rebels). 5 We tear down arguments (reasonings) and every high thing and idea that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive to the obedience of the Messiah.

6 And we are ready to make a demand on those who do not obey, when your attention is fully completed...

8 For even if I boast somewhat more about the authority which our Lord has given me, I am not ashamed, because He has given it to us for your edification, and not to wipe you away." (ANTDJ)

The congregation in Corinth came into being because Paul went to Corinth, a pagan city with low moral standards. He is their spiritual father and sees them as his children. His motivation for the Corinthians is out of genuine love and care, to bring them fully into the knowledge of God and love for Christ, into maturity, as a pure and adorned bride—just as he writes in chapter 11:

2 "For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I have betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. 3 But I fear that, just as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your minds might also be corrupted [and turned away] from the simplicity that is in Christ."

The authority to bring people and thoughts into obedience to Christ through the power of God is given by God to His messengers (apostles, teachers, and prophets) who work in a fatherly spirit to build up the congregation, are themselves obedient, and have a clear vision and doctrine. They do not tolerate falsehoods, heresies, or lies. As members of the Body of Christ, we should focus our attention on such servants of God—those who preach the Word of God and the central counsel of God with power and authority. We should not be distracted by pompous smooth-talkers who lead us into trivial matters. When our focus remains fully on Christ, rebellious strongholds will fall. In Corinth, wannabe apostles were boasting and distracting the people, so their attention was not fully on Paul and his team—who were actually writing the inspired Word of God at that time.

Further Bible verses on the role of the Body of Christ:

Colossians 2:8–23

8 See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, which follow the tradition of men and the elements of the world and not Christ. 9 For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, 10 and you are complete (filled) in Him, who is the head of all principalities and powers. 11 In Him, you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made by hands, by putting off the body of flesh, in the circumcision of Christ. 12 With Him you were buried in baptism; with Him you were also raised through faith in the power of God, who raised Him from the dead. 13 And God has made you alive with Him, you who were dead in sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, and has forgiven us all sins. 14 He has blotted out the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands and has taken it away, nailing it to the cross. 15 He has disarmed the powers and authorities and made a public spectacle of them (on the cross) and triumphed over them in Christ.

16 So let no one make you feel guilty about food and drink or about a feast day, new moon, or Sabbath. 17 These are only a shadow of what is to come, but the Body (the reality) is Christ. 18 Let no one disqualify you who delights in false humility and the worship of angels, boasting about what he has seen, and is puffed up without reason in his fleshly mind 19 and does not hold fast to the Head, from whom the whole Body, supported and held together by joints and ligaments, grows through God's growth.

20 If you have died with Christ to the elements of the world, why do you submit to decrees as if you were still living in the world: 21 "Do not handle, do not taste, do not touch"— 22 which all perish with use? They are human commandments and teachings. 23 These indeed have an appearance of wisdom in self-imposed worship and humility and by not sparing the body, but they are of no value and only serve to gratify the flesh. (Luther)

Modern commandments such as keeping distance out of fear of infection, wearing masks, not eating meat but rather consuming worms, fall into this category of absurd ascetic prohibitions and commandments (v. 21-22). However, vaccinations are neither food nor naturally intended for any use by God, but rather a bodily harm—an injection into the body with poisons, propagated out of fear of infection, justified by the lie of the infection myth, thus based on the deceitful elements of this world. It is therefore, by the same logic as warnings against heroin injections or other drugs or excessive alcohol consumption, entirely appropriate to warn against poison injections (called vaccinations). The entire pharmakeia medicine with all its medications is sorcery and a modern idol. The true Body of Christ is filled with God and stands far above this, exposing and condemning this scourge of humanity.

Since it concerns the destruction of human genetics, it is not inappropriate to address the topic of vaccination in such detail here. Already in March 2020, in the first extensive warning letter against the deceitful Covid propaganda, "Corona Panic Foretold in the Bible", we clearly pointed out that for 2000 years, satan has always used a similar scheme—he even has to follow the pattern of Revelation in his attempt, approximately every second or third generation, to bring forth an Antichrist and establish him in power. Fear is instilled through great lies and blasphemies. The mainstream media serve as the false prophet, leading people to bow to the Beast.

Revelation no longer speaks of governments as God-ordained authorities, but rather of (monstrous) Beasts that are possessed by satan and demons, which tyrannize people and demand worship and submission. Those who dare to resist must reckon with the loss of their livelihood, imprisonment, or murder. And here we have the task of disrupting this demonic system with decrees and also through civil disobedience against tyrannical, illegal, and unconstitutional regulations.

1 Corinthians 15:21-28

21 For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also comes through a man. 22 For just as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ as the firstfruits; then those who belong to Christ at His coming; 24 then the end, when He hands over the Kingdom to God the Father, when He has abolished all dominion, authority, and power. 25 For He must reign until He has put all enemies under His feet. 26 The last enemy to be abolished is death. 27 For "He has put everything under His feet." But when it says "everything" is put under Him, it is clear that this does not include the One who put everything under Him. 28 When everything is subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subjected to the One who subjected everything to Him, so that God may be all in all. (Schlachter 2000)

1 Corinthians 15:23-28 clearly indicates that Jesus will only return when all His enemies have been placed under His feet—through us, the Body. As His Body, we are also His feet.

This means that the battle will continue until this begins to be fulfilled—then Jesus will come.

In the last five years (March 2020 - February 2025), evil, fascism, murder, genocide, immorality, absurdity, crime in governments, and corruption have intensified to an extreme degree.

But, barely noticed by these servants of wickedness, this resulting pressure is also being used to finally bring the Body of Christ into its full function and purpose.

And this is the main purpose of this booklet: so that the Body of Christ may gain and maintain the decisive momentum to command everything that is not subject to Jesus under His feet—everything.

For me, as the writer of this booklet, it was vitally important that God, among others, sent Kevin Zada for this time. Also, all the other Bible teachers mentioned by name in Chapter 4, as well as many unnamed heroes of faith, form the shoulders on which I and we stand. This book is a crystallization and concentration of the most important things that have been preached, written, and lived by all these brothers and sisters—including my 45 years of Bible study—regarding God's plan to testify to the wonderful victory of Jesus on the cross and His resurrection among all nations and to execute judgment on all enemies.

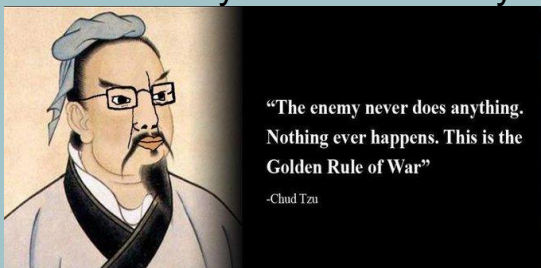

I consider it vital that as many as possible begin to practice in small groups what is written here so that God, through us, may bring forth the richest possible harvest of the seed of Jesus' sufferings, to bring this age to a glorious conclusion and to receive an adorned Bride and an army that, together with Jesus on horseback, will cast the Beast and the False Prophet into the lake of fire. See Rev. 19.

You can start today:

Task: Start immediately, daily, commanding everything you encounter that does not align with the perfect will of God to be placed under His feet in the name of Jesus. Examples: You see sickness in yourself, someone else, or an animal: Command the spirit of sickness and infirmity to leave. Speak life, health, and regeneration into the situation. You see lack: Speak wealth.

You see lies: Speak truth into the situation. You see crime, corruption, injustice, adultery, immorality, addiction, violence: Bind the spirits behind them and command the situation and all involved under the authority of Jesus. Bind strife, misunderstandings, spirits of adultery, poverty, confusion, false doctrine. Pray for enlightened eyes of the heart and for a spirit of revelation. Keep a prayer journal where you record at least one thing per day that you bind or loose. Do this daily if possible, but at least weekly with other brothers and sisters. That is Congregation, the assembly of God, God's command center, Ekklesia.

"The enemy never does anything. Nothing ever just happens. This is the Golden Rule of War." That is why Ekklesia discerns the enemy, binds him, and commands what is to be done – and thanks to speaking in tongues and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the Ekklesia cannot be manipulated or predicted by the enemy.

Chapter 8

Important: What should we call ourselves, how should we "found" a Congregation?

Watchman Nee clearly demonstrated in two of his books, The Normal Christian Church Life and Collected Works on Church Life, that in the New Testament, the Congregation never has a name, and that naming it is comparable to spiritual adultery. Even names like "Church of Christ" are misplaced. The Congregation is always the Congregation of Christ.

Giving a name almost inevitably promotes or forces divisive thinking. In God's eyes, there is only one Body of Christ and one Congregation. Locally, they were simply addressed by the place they were in, as seen in Revelation 2 & 3: The Congregation in Ephesus, Laodicea, etc. Paul at most used the term the Congregation, Assembly, Ekklesia in the house of so-and-so for smaller groups. The names only indicated the location of the local Congregation, but there was only one Ekklesia. The sin of divisions and the formation of denominations only emerged later.

The Catholic Church cannot claim to be the one Ekklesia. Since the bishops (overseers) of Rome began asserting supremacy and supervision over other local Congregations, they fell into the sin of man-made denominationalism, which was no longer an expression of the one Body of Christ. Later, the Babylonian-Satanic mixture entered the Church of Rome, fully turning it into the Whore of Babylon.

The sin of division is so severe that it can not be undone, and it has deeply ingrained itself into our consciousness.

For about 40 years, I have pondered how to build a local Congregation without creating yet another division.

I received the key around 2018/2019, but I have never widely published it. Now is the time.

The solution to forming a Congregation without creating another division is simple and easy to accept for Christians who want to experience the reality and power of the Body of Christ in their location without violating unity:

1) You cannot "found" a Congregation—it arises automatically as soon as two or more Christians are present in the same place and meet.

2) The Ekklesia has no name. It is simply the Congregation of Christ, period. Naming it is divisive.

3) The Ekklesia is not a human organization. Creating a regional, national, or international association of multiple local Congregations results in a denomination. The common denominator is either a movement, a confession, a minister of God, a committee, a ministry, or a mixture of these—this is divisive. Whenever good, vital ministries with international impact begin founding Congregations instead of simply serving them, a new denomination is born. Instead, they should simply form teams.

Curry Blake seems to have understood this intuitively by suggesting the name Life Team. This does not create division or a new denomination. Practical matters such as renting or purchasing meeting places are not the responsibility of the Congregation itself but should be delegated to trustworthy individuals. If a legal association or similar structure is needed, the statutes should make it clear that this is not the Congregation but simply a service association for gatherings.

Arranging when and where to meet, such as on the first day of the week (Sunday) and daily, is a minimal form of organization.

4) Since the sin of division has already occurred, you cannot force all Christians in your location to join you.

5) Therefore, attempting to achieve unity by calling yourselves "The Congregation of [Your Town]" is problematic. This is almost the same as naming the Congregation, which is divisive, even though the intention is the opposite—to meet on the ground of unity as the local Congregation.

This practice is followed by the so-called local churches of W. Lee or W. Nee and various Brethren movements. I do not consider them worse than other Christian "Congregations" or churches. However, it is a fact that many within these circles develop an isolated, inward-focused mindset, which can easily lead to a divisive attitude. Additionally, even within these groups, different factions exist. The Lord knows the hearts of each person.

A very positive aspect of these circles is that they reject the clergy-laity system. There is no single pastor conducting a "church service." Instead, everyone should participate and share.

6) The very simple solution lies in: Be fully aware that you are only a part of the Body of Christ, the Congregation at your location. Other members are scattered in other groups. That is why we only call ourselves a group, team, or center, not a Congregation, Assembly or Ekklesia. However, we could call ourselves a Mini-Congregation to indicate that we practice Matthew 18. It is obvious that 2 or 3 or 5 do not represent the whole Congregation. But ideally, such Mini-Ekklesias are an effective, powerful spiritual combat unit for the destruction of the works of the devil and distribution centers for God's material and spiritual blessings.

7) This perspective of seeing oneself only as a part is very liberating and even allows you to give your group or team a name, as long as you do not call it a Congregation (not even Assembly, Ekklesia or Church), but rather a group, team, center, or similar. It is clear that a group or team does not consider itself to be all-encompassing. However, the gathering around God's presence at your location is something you do not want to miss, but also should not assume that this only happens in your group, although there are other Christian assemblies. This perspective promotes the awareness of the one Body of Christ, which is so important to reach for the end-time battle – and it brings an enormous power and blessing of God with it.

It is not about quibbling over words, but using such wording that fosters the correct self-understanding and awareness of the Body of Christ, and not that of traditional Christian congregations, churches, and denominations.

8) It is very easy for new or others to join such a group, precisely because it does not claim to encompass everything and does not smell (reek) of sectarianism.

9) What do you do now with your congregation, which was hardly founded according to this principle? You must figure that out for yourself and handle it delicately. If you are as a community in the first love of Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, it could cause more harm to harshly attack leading brothers with these external suggestions. Ideally, you can discuss it peacefully and possibly find a very slight solution by renaming yourselves from Congregation to Team, for example. For instance, instead of "Agape Congregation," you could change it to "Agape Center" or "Team of Philadelphia," etc. If it smells of the garlic of the Harlot Babylon and a conversation with the leaders brings no change, it may be best to quietly leave, so as not to provoke ugly arguments. You can also adopt the perspective that "your" previous congregation or church does not actually represent the Ekklesia but is more like a Christian club. In that way, you can continue participating if you think it's beneficial and you can enrich others with spiritual life without being dragged down yourself. At the same time, you can practice the mini-Ekklesia in your homes with 2-3 or more. The trend for house assemblies has been widely spread recently.

Witness Lee was one of the first to push this strongly in the early 90s, his Vital Groups messages were a desperate attempt to move the stagnated situation towards true Ekklesia. Excellent messages. This booklet now gives you a clear description of what and how you can do house assemblies.

If you notice that your activity is not welcomed by the leaders and they are afraid that you are disturbing their realm of power, it might be better to part ways as peacefully as possible.

Especially in the end times, when many are falling away, divisions are unavoidable. We are called to come out of the Harlot Babylon, which is the fallen adulterous Christianity with its churches, congregations, and denominations, where human organizations and soulish activities have long dethroned the Holy Spirit. Sins are tolerated, and compromises are made. Regardless of the situation, you can immediately begin practicing Chapter 4 with 2-3 others.

Personal advice: I came to faith in 1980 in evangelical, non-“pentecostal” circles, God bless the brother who invited me to the evangelization. Later, I was part of nameless small groups, then in local congregations according to Witness Lee and Watchman Nee, and a small group. I am thankful to Ruedi Bucher for what I have learned from him. Since I make no compromises with this vision, I am pretty much alone at the moment. For the past 20 years, I have greatly benefited from what powerful servants of God with a “charismatic” background preach and live. I find it fatal when groups close themselves off to things that clearly play an important role in the New Testament as part of the Gospel and for building the Church, the Body: It is fatal to not consider faith healing important, to avoid the gifts of the Holy Spirit like speaking in tongues, or even to think and speak ill of them. This is an offense to the Holy Spirit, who uses these gifts intensively for God’s counsel.

That people boast of gifts but do not live a good life is certainly not a reason to be against the use of spiritual gifts. Anyone who rejects entire chapters and concepts (healing through prayer) and parts of Christ’s work of reconciliation in the New Covenant (by His stripes, we are healed) should not be surprised if he or she or members of their group die prematurely, before God’s plan. Do NOT remove anything from the New Testament. Nothing.

Examples of how we can "name" ourselves:

Command Center & Distribution Center of R... If others ask if we are the only ones, we can suggest that we do not see ourselves as the only ones. We view and understand ourselves as a Command Center of Christ's Ambassadors in our city, always with the awareness that we are just a part of the whole Church.

Further thoughts: We are a team of liberation agents in the territory of King Jesus on Earth, which is illegally occupied by the enemy, the spirits of the kingdom of darkness, who have enslaved the people. Goal: To free the enslaved people who want to be freed and to destroy the kingdom of darkness and its leader, satan. The people who do not want to be freed and prefer to live their own lives within the system of this world or directly give themselves over as servants of evil, will ultimately be lost with the devils.

Thus, we are a team of liberation agents in our city.

Our leader is King Jesus, and our governor, life supply, advocate, and our strength is General Holy Spirit.

The Body of Christ is a spiritual reality.

1 Cor. 12:12ff: "For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. 13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one Body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit."

12:27 Now you are the Body of Christ and individually members of it.

Prayer:

Our Father in heaven, we thank You for Your wonderful economy, that You are preparing us as the Body of Christ in glory without spot or blemish to present us as a Bride to Christ. We repent for our lukewarmness, ignorance, and negligence regarding Your plan to fill us as the Body of Christ with Yourself, so that we can implement Your kingdom rule here on Earth. We also repent for the child murders through abortion and child mutilation through vaccinations, medicine, and satanism in our nation.

We ask You to give us a spirit of revelation so that we may receive a clear vision of the Body of the Messiah and recognize You. Grant us an awareness of God's organism intertwined with mankind as the Body of Christ that will completely transform us. We stand in awe before You and praise Your brilliant plan. We surrender ourselves to Your plan. Burn away everything that hinders You. Amen.

Chapter 9: Spiritual Authority

Important Insights into Spiritual Authority

If this is true and we write it into our hearts, powerful miracles, signs, healings, demolitions of strongholds, and the destruction of the enemy's plans will take place.

Important: This only works if we remain in obedience.

What is Authority?

God is in heaven and has delegated the earth to mankind. However, man is not meant to act independently or make decisions on his own.

God is bound and cannot or will not act on earth without man.

Authority means that, as a human being, one is commissioned and authorized by God's will to speak forth His will as a command on earth. This is exactly what God needs in order to intervene. He waits for us to declare in authority what He wants to do. When we speak out what God intends to do in the name of Jesus and know without doubt in our hearts that God the Father wants to do this now, then He does it. He stretches out His arm or His finger, intervenes with miraculous power, and what we speak, command, and decree in this authority happens.

We issue the executive orders to enforce God's will.

We have authority when we:

Do not tolerate any conscious sins.

Do not live in sinful circumstances.

Do not live in willful disobedience.

Are aware that God has delegated responsibility and given us authority to enforce His will on earth through prayer and decrees.

We are conscious of the immense power and authority of the Name of Jesus, in which we act and speak. Jesus is set above all names, powers, and authorities in the universe.

We know and do His will. We obey God.

We submit ourselves under His authority.

We have a heart and conscience that do not condemn us—we are cleansed and justified by the blood of Jesus, living in obedience in the Spirit, not in the flesh.

The power of this authority is released when we believe it in our hearts and speak it with our mouths.

When two or three come together and act in this way, this is the corporate Christ.

Jesus, as the Head, is in heaven; as the Spirit, He is in the midst of the assembly. And we, as the Body of Christ on earth—you and I as members of His Body—have both the authority and the commission to execute God's will.

As the Body, we also have the ability to discern the powers in the heavenly realms, to stop their harmful influence on people and politics, and even to remove corrupt rulers.

This authority is described, for example, in Ephesians 3 & 6:

Ephesians 3:9-12 I enlighten everyone concerning the administration (economy) of the mystery which God, the Creator of all things, kept hidden before the world began. That through the Congregation (Ekklesia), the full wisdom of God might be made known, to discern and bind the rulers and authorities in the heavens. Exactly this was prepared before time began and has been carried out through our Lord Jesus the Messiah. In Him, we now have boldness, access, and confidence through faith in Him.

Ephesians 6:10-13 Now, my brothers, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His mighty strength. Put on the full armor of God, so that you may stand firm against the tactics of the devil. For our fight is not against flesh and blood, but against rulers, authorities, and those who hold the world in darkness, and against the evil spirits under heaven. Therefore, take up the whole armor of God, so that you may withstand the evil day. When you are ready, stand firm in all things!

Corporate Authority of the Congregation & the Mini-Ekklesia (2-3 Believers) in Matthew 18:17-20

17) If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the Ekklesia. And if he refuses to listen to the Ekklesia, let him be to you as a tax collector and a heathen.

The Decentralized Mini-Ekklesia in Action:

Applying the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven

18) And I say to you, whatever you bind on earth will also be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will also be loosed in heaven.

19) Again, I say to you that if two of you on earth agree concerning anything they ask, it will be done for them by the presence of my Father who is in heaven. 20) For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am in their midst. (ANTDJ)

Summary of the Book:

To bring fallen humanity back into the Kingdom of God, God uses the Congregation (Ekklesia) as the real Body of Christ on Earth.

God's approach is organic—through the Holy Spirit and Divine Life within born-again Christians. His divine plan, His economy, is to make everything new in Christ, who is the head of the Congregation.

Jesus ended the old world and the old man on the cross.

Outside of Christ, everything is meaningless, the world system is coming to an end.

Whoever does not turn to Jesus Christ remains outside the new eternal creation and will perish. Jesus the Christ is the origin of everything in all future ages.

All enemies must be placed under Jesus' feet. And He accomplishes this through the Ekklesia (Congregation), His body, by means of Divine Life and the Holy Spirit in the members of His Body.

Where two or three gather in this understanding in Jesus' Name, He is in their midst. They can ask whatever they desire (since they know and seek God's will), and it will be granted by the Father in Heaven.

In this way, satan's kingdom and his servants are destroyed and placed under Jesus' feet.

John 17:20-22: Ekklesia shares the Glory of the Father and Son.

20. I (Jesus) pray that they all may be one, just as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be one in Us, so that the world may believe that You have sent Me.

21. I have given them the glory that You gave Me, that they may be one as We are one—*

22. *I in them and You in Me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that You sent Me and have loved them even as You have loved Me.

The Heavenly Father loves Ekklesia as he loves the Son!

Decrees:

As the Body of Christ, we now take, according to the word of Jesus, the key of the Kingdom of Heaven and decree:

This booklet on the practical function, responsibility, and task of the Body of Christ shall be widely distributed. It shall be easily found. It shall be used so that Jesus may finally receive a prepared bride and all enemies be brought under His feet. We destroy all obstacles that try to hinder the spread of this truth.

We bind the spirits of the antichrist agendas, the “great reset,” the destruction of agricultural and industrial production, transhumanism, vaccine murder, the mRNA agenda, and pedophile-satanist trafficking networks. The demonic influence over these agendas is now shattered in the Name of Jesus. All financial resources for these crimes are cut off. We destroy the influence of demons over governments, councils, the senate, judiciary, prosecutors, intelligence agencies, freemasons, NGOs, and the media. All those responsible for these crimes must stand trial. Lying media are destroyed and cast into the lake of fire. We command the spirits of world war back into the abyss. You are bound under the feet of Jesus, the King of Kings. Amen.

If you believe in the Lord Jesus, the Messiah, the Savior-King, you can say amen to this and help distribute the truth and these decrees as a testimony against satan and his human servants of wickedness. If you have suggestions for decrees,
